Min HC53/26 – Trethurgy Village Hall Summer Event

Good feedback and several attended the event. A few signed up who would be willing to help or have stories/photos to share. People keen to know what the Parish Council are doing. Cllr M Luke advised that Trethurgy hold a Christmas event, however all tables have already been booked.

Members felt that events like this are good to attend within the Parish and so will continue to do as and when they come up. If all information from the display boards could be kept by the administrator for future use.

Cllr P Quilter is looking into the Cornish names for areas within the Parish. Cllr G Tregidga would be happy to approach Dr Andrew Clymo to assist with the Cornish names.

It was RESOLVED that Cllr G Tregidga contact Dr A Clymo.
Proposed: Cllr Mrs. M Thomas, Seconded: Cllr P Quilter. All in Favour.

Min HC54/26 - Future Heritage Workshops

Members discussed various different ideas and avenues for future events. Jon Callingham suggested the history of Methodism as several chapels within the Parish. He commented that some children have never in Bugle Chapel. When was it built? Could we obtain old photos of the chapel to display. Used to be chapels at Greensplat, Carthew and Penwithick.

Could also look in to the history of the pubs in Bugle and Carthew. With three schools in the Parish, great to look into the history and involve the children.

Is Treverbyn Community Hall having a Christmas fair then then members could attend. ACTION: Administrator to find out from the Chair of the hall.
It is the 100th Year of the Royal Trophy for the band festival. Cllr Mrs. M Thomas suggested looking into where the bands originated from within the Parish.
ACTION: Members to bring photos and anything relating to the bands.

Future ideas to look at the original shops/cinemas within the Parish.

Member discussed priorities for the next meeting. ACTION: Cllr G Tregidga and J Callingham to look at future events at Bugle Chapel and the Sawles Arms. Cllr Mrs. M Thomas to research about the history of the schools/education in the area.

Cllr M Luke suggested a visit to have a tour of Sky Primary, he thinks it may have already been discussed for members.

How can we involve younger children going forward? ACTION: agenda item for next meeting.

Min HC55/26 - Wheal Martyn Exhibition/Nature of Project/Exhibition

March 2027 – look at themes – pubs/churches/schools/music. Discuss at next meeting with Cllr L Allen and look at confirming dates.

Min HC56/26 – Commemorative Plaques/Information Boards

If the money is available then would look to have about 10 information boards. Cllr L Allen has draft designs. ACTION: Administrator to contact R Gates and Cllr M Luke may see him at the next CAP meeting regarding funds.

Min HC57/26 – Website

The Administrator discussed ideas for the website with the additional tab and then links to different areas of the Parish to then display photos and stories related the village/hamlet. This can be done similar to the news feed on the current website. Members discussed using the name 'History and Heritage' for the link/new page. Cost from Western Web would be £120 + VAT.

It was RESOLVED to recommend the name and addition to the website to Full Council for approval.

Proposed: Cllr M Luke, Seconded: Cllr G Tregidga. All in Favour.

Discussed if the addition of information boards, then could QR codes be linked to this area of the website. ACTION: Administrator to contact Western Web to discuss.

Min HC58/26 – Imerys Heritage Structures within Treverbyn

The administrator had been contacted by J Elvins from Imerys as they are currently carrying out safety inspections to their Heritage structures. He is keen for the committee to check from the map circulated those that are identified and if there are any in addition.

Members discussed additional structures that could be on Imerys land:

- Chimney in Carthew, opposite the triangle/Sawles Arms on the main road.
- Chimney/Engine house on the edge of Baal pit, near the Imerys footpath
- Potential chimneys/dries at Ruddlemoor, on the footpath/White River Valley.

ACTION: Administrator to forward to J Elvins, Imerys.

Min HC59/26 – Any other Business

Cllr G Tregidga advised there is a day conference at Rescorla on Saturday 10th October at 10.30am on walking in the Cornish landscape if anyone is interested.
